"If you ever wanted a motivation to cycle, we give it to you now – BEER!"

Get ready as Carvan Trips take you for an epic heritage ride down the historic lanes of South Mumbai! Cycling is one of the best ways to explore these parts of town as everything is nearby; the streets are in excellent condition and the best part - No Traffic!!

We all might have whiz past through these colonial heritage structures at some point, wondered for a second about them, and then probably went on with our busy city lives. However, these structures reveal a different story as they wake up from their slumber, and the first rays of sunlight on the brown washed British era buildings provide a heady mix of beauty, history & nostalgia.

We'll start our cycling trip from Colaba towards Gateway of India, explore the nearby structures and then cycle along the numerous heritage sites. On the way, we will stop for interesting stories, fun facts, and of course, selfies!

Now, we can understand that riding through South Mumbai can make you really, like Reaally thirsty...So how about tanking up all those calories you burn, Guilt Free ;)

And so, we will end our epic ride at a Heritage Bar with a chilled beer, On the House!
