

Kedarkantha Trek

The Kedarkantha Peak is one of the most popular winter trekking destination. At the foothills of the Himalayas lies the terrific base camp of Kedarkantha, an open meadow with snow peaks peeking from above. The months of December through February the trek route that usually boasts of lush rolls of greenery gets covered in white virgin snow. When after a tiring trek, you cross a clearing surrounded by giant pine trees, your somber self would light up seeing the pristine waters of Juda-Ka-Talab, also a campsite. This trek is a must-do for all winter lovers and mountain lovers and can be done by first timers with no prior experience.
